All ads must be created in a graphics or page layout program (Corel Draw or PhotoShop), not a word processing program (Word or Publisher).

It is very important to note, if you are not the person creating the ad, copy this info and paste it into an email to send to the person who is doing the creating, or paste it into a document that you can print out and hand to that person. If you have questions, ask before you invest time into something that cannot be used.

Files must be PC compatible. If working on a Mac, be sure to choose to save for a PC.

It must be saved in one of the following formats: a jpg, tif, or bmp of at least 300 dpi at the size you want it to appear in the publication; an Adobe Acrobat pdf file; or a CorelDraw file. The bitmap file is preferred providing it is prepared properly.

Photos: photos that are at least 300dpi, convert to cmyk for print quality, make lighting adjustments, professional images highly recommended

Fonts: All fonts must be converted to curves or outlines before you create a pdf file. We do not have every font that exists and we reserve the right to substitute fonts.

Border: The ad must be bordered by a 1point outline. A “full page” ad is 8.5” X 10.875”. If creating a full page ad, there must be one-eighth inch of bleed on all sides.

File Name: The file name of the ad should be the name of the business for whom the ad was created. Bridal Guide ad is not acceptable.

Example: XYZ Business Ad.pdf

If emailed, place the business name followed by “ad” in the subject line.

If submitted any other way, be sure that the media is formatted for a PC.

Be sure the media is clearly labeled with the business name.

Ad Components: All ads must be submitted with copies of the individual components of the ad included: photos that are at least 300dpi, logos, text files and fonts, if specific ones are required. Occasionally, an ad must be re-created using our layout program, if the ad was sized incorrectly, etc. Include the elements with the original advertising submission.

If we are designing an ad, be sure to include all copy in one single file. That should include business name, address, phone number, web address, email address, hours, etc. Do not assume that we know what you want included.

Ad sizes:

1/8 pg=3 5/8” w x 2 3/8”h

3/8 pg=3 5/8” w x 7 3/8” h

1/2 pg vert= 3 5/8” w x 10”h

Full pg =8.5” w x 10 7/8”h (this is trim size; will need to add 1/4” to each side for bleed.)

1/4 pg=3 5/8”w x 4 7/8” h

1/2 pg= 7.5” w x 4 7/8”h

2.5 “ w by 5” h – special insert ads

Inserts and stick-ons available.

Submit all ad parts separately with the ad mock-up: logo and professional photos at 300 dpi or greater as tif or jpeg, pc versions, no Illustrator or Photo Shop please.

Please note: If the customer composes the ad and does not electronically submit to The Bridal Guide/Jill Doherty the requested ad parts and components, we/The Bridal Guide/Jill Doherty is not responsible for the press run when the requested parts are not supplied. The presses run seven days a week and if the guide is run on the weekend when the customer is not available, we cannot fix any unusual situations that may arise in ad conversions.
